The Class Of 1965

"Forward To New Horizons"

Chittenango Central School

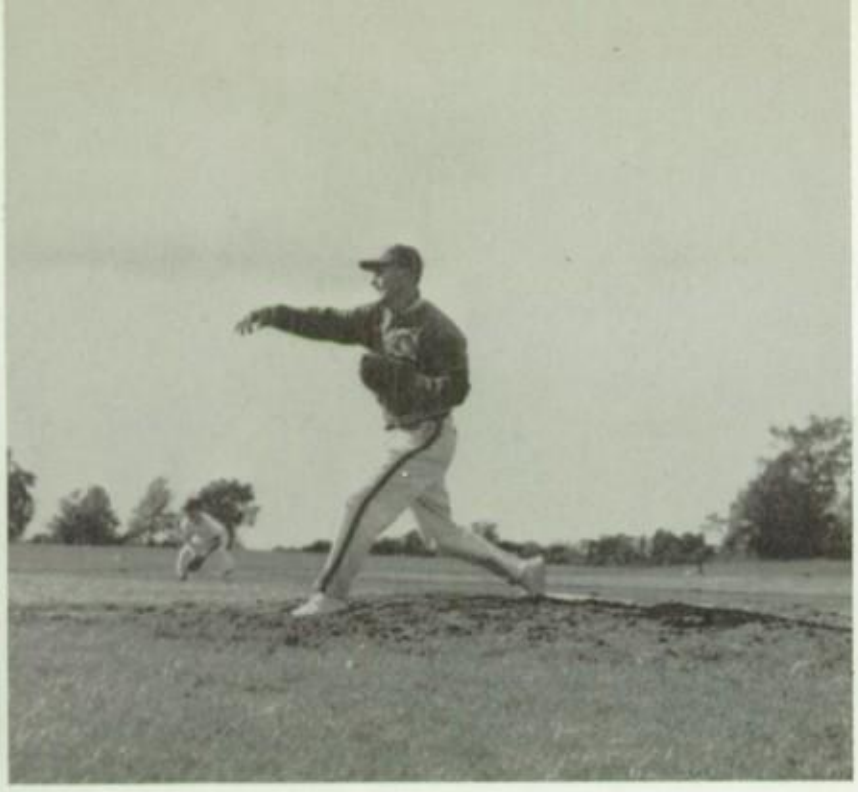
Chittenango, New York

Foreword

The 1965 commencement marks the end of twelve years of hard work and fun. For we, the seniors, our last six years are documented in this year's Palladium. We use the word "commencement" because while graduation is an end it is also a beginning. Graduation is the first major milestone in our lives but it cannot be considered an achievement in itself, for our education has only been a preparation for what lies ahead. Thus we have chosen our theme—Forward to New Horizons—to signify that it is indeed a milestone and not a stop sign we have come to, for we look with confidence to the future.

With these thoughts in mind, we present to you the 1965 Palladium.

FORWARD TO NEW HORIZONS



We, the Class of 1965, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Philip Gordon, in appreciation for all the time and effort he has devoted to us and the rest of the student body.

Graduates of Class of 1965

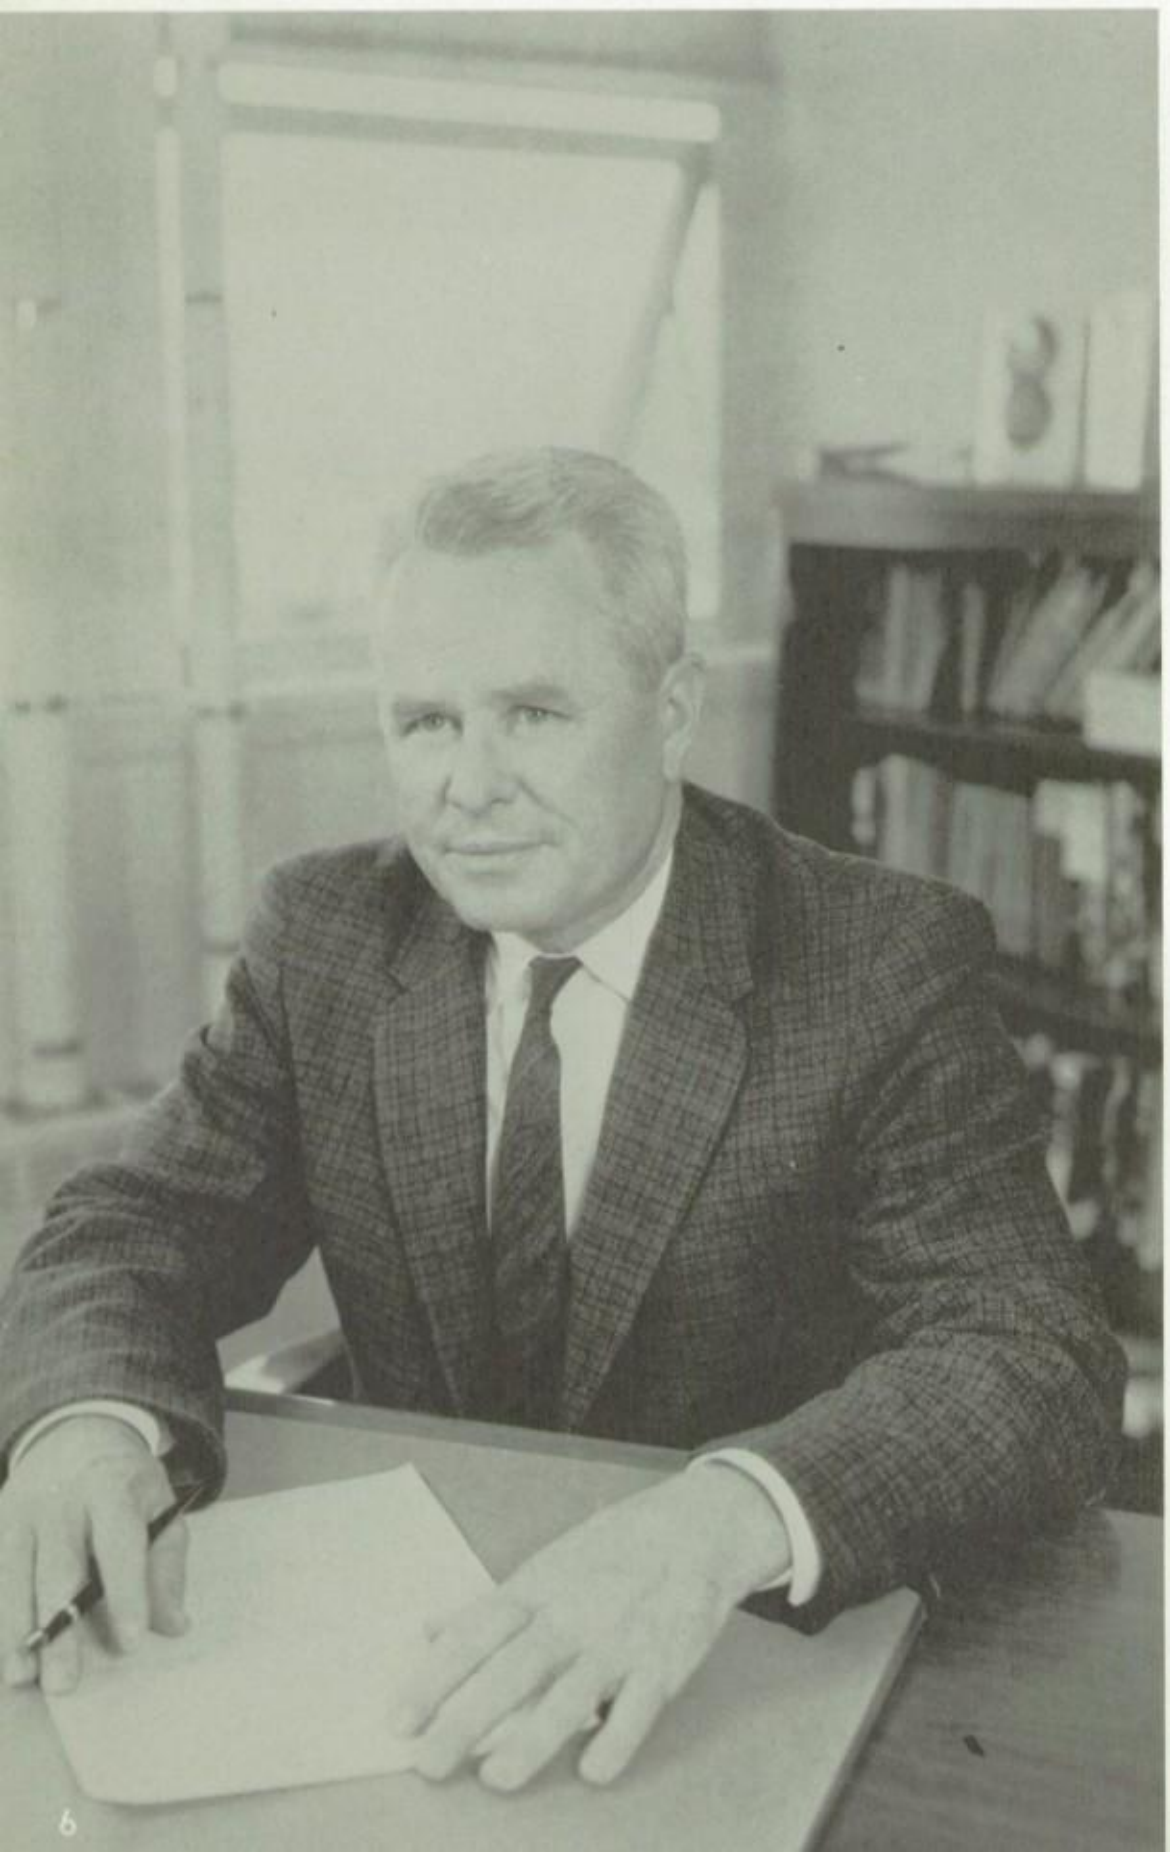
It is most satisfying to wish you well in the future as you graduate from Chittenango Central School. It is also satisfying to realize that you have accomplished this level in the educational process and I congratulate you sincerely for this achievement.

The decisions and disciplines of the past years which were made for you have obviously been fruitful to you. Now it is your turn to begin making decisions which will determine your future and establish disciplines which may be guidelines for a better future for all of us. As you become leaders in your community and as you strengthen your community, all of society will gain.

Your educational and vocational choices of the past and present are ample proof that you are able and ready. I have enjoyed my associations with each and every one of you and join your parents and guardians with every good wish for success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Hughes
Supervising Principal



To the Class of 1965,

These times are not only proud and satisfying moments for you, but also for your parents and friends. Graduation day is symbolic of the accomplishments you have achieved in your early life. But such achievements go beyond the number of required units for graduation. For you would never have achieved these legal requirements if it had not been for a list of intangible characteristics that each of you have developed from birth. Some of these characteristics that have helped make each of you successful are integrity, diligence, concern for others, faith, loyalty, and a belief in the American way of life. Your high school years were successful because you demonstrated these attributes in your daily work.

After high school, your everyday living will be continually filled with temptations to side-step these ideals. But even if you occasionally enjoy success by so doing, you are losing your good character and eventually will lose the tangible rewards being sought.

Thus, as we part our formal relationship, I wish to express my sincere congratulations and voice my appreciation for having the privilege of knowing you and your families.

Best wishes,

Warren E. Jerome
High School Principal

Alma Mater

Hail to Alma Mater,
May she ever stand,
Always be surrounded
By a loving band,
And in grateful homage
Always we'll come back
To the days we spent there
Neath the red and black.

To our Alma Mater
Always we'll be true,
Though perhaps we'll wander
All the wide world through,
And in loving homage
Always we'll come back
To the days we spent there
Neath the red and black.

In this fair small village
May she ever stand;
Always be surrounded
By a loving band
As the Senior Classes
From her portals flow,
Always we'll remember
Her and Chittenango.

To the faculty and students of Chittenango,

My congratulations to the class of 1965. It certainly was a pleasure being with you this school year. I hope I have contributed something in making your last year in high school a wonderful one. I wish you all success.

Every minute of my stay here will always be treasured. I have learned a lot from you and I hope to have shared with you things worth remembering too. I really hope that I have accomplished the aims of all A.F.S.'ers and ambassadors of good will.

May you all join me in helping A.F.S. attain its goal of furthering better relations between our countries.

I sincerely thank you all for everything.
